THCS Knowledge Hub: Rationale and Ambition

The aim is to co-design and implement the THCS Knowledge Hub which will act as a multi-functional platform fostering capacity-building support, exchange of good practices, knowledge and experience of different health and social care actors at macro, meso and micro levels for the transformation of health and social care sectors.

THCS Knowledge Hub: Key designing principles

- The key driving force for the development of the Hub is a bottom-up approach with the users at the centre of co-design process.

- The Knowledge Hub is an online platform designed as a module-based platform.

- Several iterations of co-design are being undertaken to enable continual improvement in the development of the Hub.

- Mapping of existing Hubs and knowledge exchange platforms was conducted to ensure we build on the existing resources and tools rather than duplicating the efforts and reinventing the wheel.

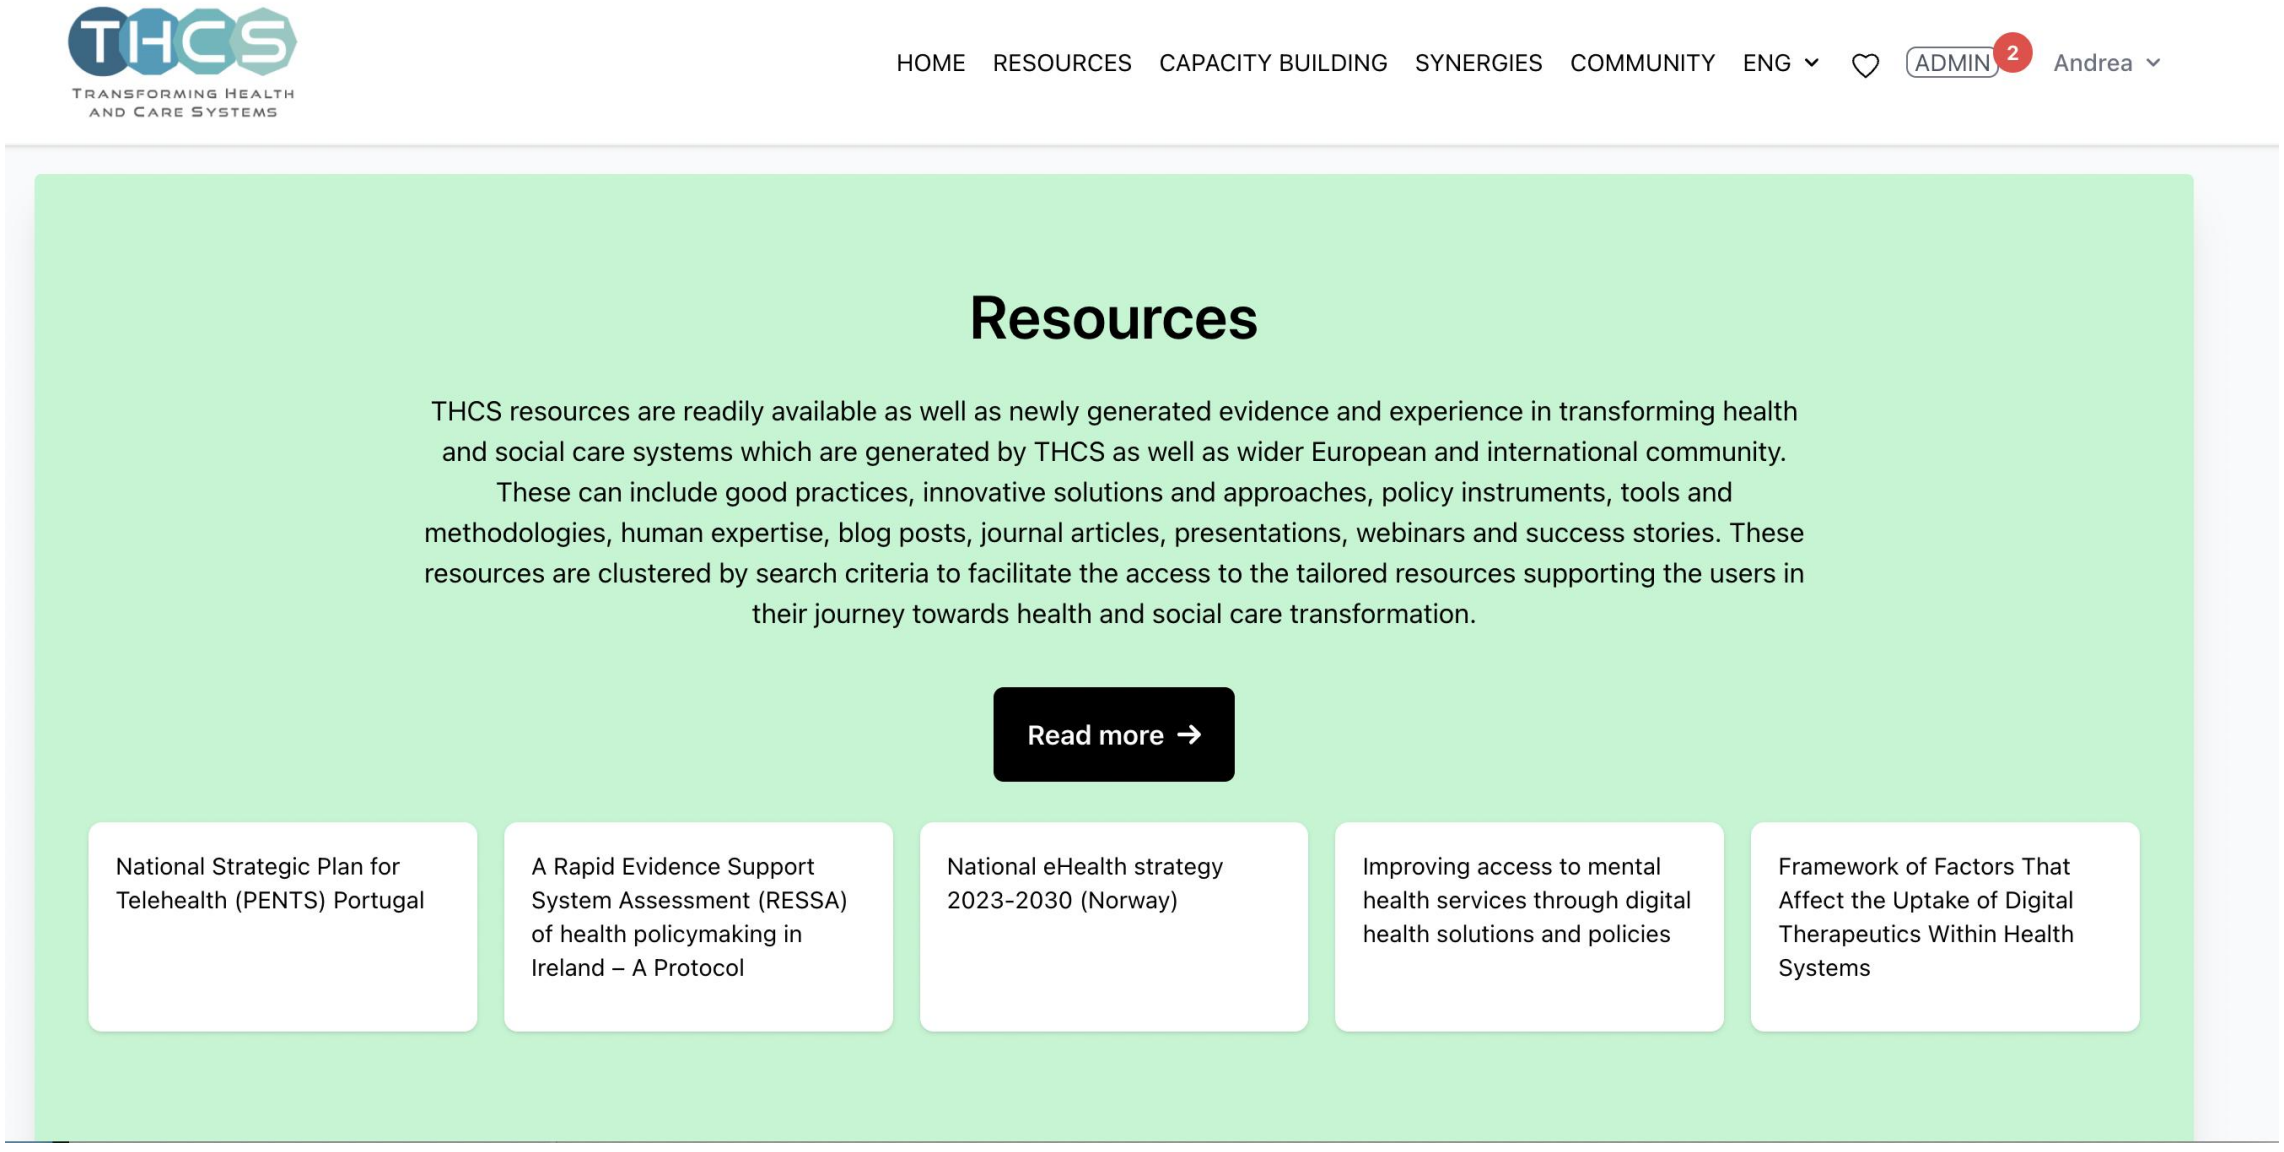
Structure of the THCS Knowledge Hub - Resources



Resources

THCS resources are readily available as well as newly generated evidence and experience in transforming health and social care systems which are generated by THCS as well as wider European and international community. These can include good practices, innovative solutions and approaches, policy instruments, tools and methodologies, human expertise, blog posts, journal articles, presentations, webinars and success stories. These resources are clustered by search criteria to facilitate the access to the tailored resources supporting the users in their journey towards health and social care transformation.

INTEGRATED CARE

The Joint Action (JA) on implementation of digitally enabled integrated person-centred care (JADECARE) is part of a series of initiatives the EU has launched to face the challenges of the transformation of health and care in the EU. JADECARE intends to reinforce the capacity of health authorities to successfully address important aspects of health system transformation, in particular the transition to digitally enabled, integrated, person-centred care in the EU. For this purpose, 16 EU countries participate in JADECARE. In order to achieve these goals, four "Early Adopters" of original Good Practices support "Next Adopters", i.e. participating regions of Member States to transfer the successful practices and generated knowledge into the healthcare systems of the participating partners.
